

Jack Kile Scholarship

This annual scholarship is sponsored by Jack Kile, Ph.D., CCC-A. Dr. Kile's passion for audiology has influenced countless professionals in the fields of speech-language pathology and audiology. The scholarship was established for students with an indicated interest in pediatric audiology or educational audiology at either the undergraduate or graduate level.

Guidelines for Application:

This scholarship will be presented at the WSHA Convention in the spring of each year. The amount to be awarded during the WSHA Convention will be $2,000. The intent is for the money to be used toward education costs. To apply for the scholarship, a student must meet the following conditions:

1. Be a graduate student in his or her first year of an accredited graduate program in audiology in the state of Wisconsin, or be an undergraduate with the goal of going on to graduate school in audiology.
2. Have a career goal of pediatric audiology or educational audiology.
3. Submit two letters of recommendations that describe clinical and academic abilities. These letters may be from faculty members or practicum supervisors.
4. Submit a completed application form along with an official transcript of all graduate coursework.

The completed application form, graduate transcript, and letters of recommendation must be received by the WSHA Foundation on or before June 28th. Incomplete or late applications will be disqualified.

The WSHA Foundation does not discriminate based on race, color, creed, age, gender, sexual orientation, or disability.

You may duplicate this form as much as needed.

Responses to the following questions will be rated together with the recommendations and grade point average to determine which applicant has excelled in clinical, academic, and professional activities. If a response is longer than the space permits, please continue on an additional sheet of paper.

1. What are your career plans and goals?
2. What strengths do you bring to your intended profession?
3. What professional/community service contributions have you made as a student (e.g., WSHA, NSSLHA, volunteer programs)?
4. Why should you be selected to receive this scholarship?

5. Describe your most rewarding and most challenging clinical experiences.

Please be certain to include two letters of recommendation and your official graduate transcript with this application. If there are questions, contact the WSHA Foundation at CSEasterling@aol.com. All materials must be received at the WSHA Foundation office on or before June 28th. Incomplete or late applications will be disqualified.
